Important information

As a fund, we cannot transfer money to individual bank accounts. We can only transfer funds to the bank accounts of foundations, associations, or social enterprises.

If your group is not part of an official organization, you'll need to find one that can receive the funds on your behalf. This organization will receive the money in your name. We and your local advisor are happy to assist you in finding an organization that can fulfill this role for you. It is not necessary to have one before submitting your application.
